- INDIANA.

Items of General Interest Told in Paragraphs.

ployers to import nonunion workers. With a net tonnage of thirty-one. Cardinal Martinelli, representing the pope, dedicated St. Josephat's Roman ing to find himself in the grasp of a people. Closing meetings of the Epworth League convention at San Francisco ing a revolver from the bureau, fired accepted by Secretary of War. Were attended with great enthusiasm.

Many delegates started homeward. Heat Sunday reached 103 degrees at Chicago's efficial thermometer and 118 degrees on the street level, all former records being broken. Two deaths and several prestrations. Heat record broken throughout the corn belt.

German Exchange bank of Chilton, Wis., may pay creditors 50 per cent cash lost in bad loans to two concerns which were allowed to borrow without limit.

Kansas temperance women destroyed a tent saloon at Eldorado and a policy shop at Leavenworth. Fort Scott saloons enjoined by court.

Arthur McLaughlin and Effle Tipton eloped at New Ross, Ind. Girl's father chased them ten miles.

Postoffice at Mier, Ind., abolished, releasing Postmaster A. L. Fox, who repeatedly attempted to resign. Eighteen incendiary fires last month at Mattoon, Ill., destroyed property worth $2,400,000. Burning ship sighted off Greenland, Mich., but no signs of wreckage could Epworth league convention at San Francisco held sessions at the pavilion and at the Alhambra Theater. Many addresses made. Man and woman arrested at Worcester, Mass., charged with attempt to extort $8,000 from Millionaire C. S. Rabbi Frey of Wabash, Ind., declares he has invented a car that will travel 300 miles an hour over sea or land. Governor Durbin, in letter to State Department, denied story that Italian Consul was refused admission to hospital at Peru, Ind., where injured Italians were cared for.

Union molders in several cities offered aid to the Chicago strikers.

All hope of compromise in steel strike was ended by declaration of J. Pierpont Morgan upholding combine's stand. Arbitration board gave up attempt to secure a conference. President Shaffer still confident of victory.

the Boers. Ammunition nearly gone, in the field disrupted by desertions.

prietor of "Streets of Mexico."

International Epworth League convention opened at San Francisco with delegates present from all parts of the world. Welcomed by governor and German Exchange Bank of Chilton. Wis., failed, with liabilities of $600,000 and $400,000 assets. Receiver asked by the attorney general.

War between the sugar trust and the beet sugar manufacturers of California is about to open.

Tolstoi passed crisis in his sickness and is out of danger. P. E. Paulen of Chicago committed suicide by hanging himself with strap used by daughter for her school books. St. Louis man went to sleep in barrel of tar and had to be chopped out. Scattering rains in the droughtstricken corn belt check the work of destruction, but drenching floods are needed to save the remnants of the W. R. Miller, station agent of the Metropolitan Elevated road, shot and severely wounded in fight with holdup men, who robbed Hoyne avenue station at Chicago. The village park at Allegan, Mich.

recently purchased by the council, has been renamed Pingree Park in honor of the late ex-governor. Robert McKee, a school teacher, was drowned in Big Muddy river near Murphysboro, Ill., while swimming. His companion, Elmer Warson, had a narrow escape from death in trying to save the former.

President Shaffer charges the steel combine is using its $200,000,000 reserve fund to sustain the market and thus hurt the strike cause. Federation of Labor promises the strikers $500 - ing lynched at Kansas City by a mob 000 weekly.

costs for contempt of court.

New Mexico, has been arrested, turned loose for lack of evidence Juscharged with embezzling postal funds. Ethel Fitch and Annie Gunn were drowned in the Mahoning river at be given the statements of Miss Davis side him. It is supposed the baby Youngstown, Ohio. The little girls were in bathing and went beyond their | them admitted having made misstate-depth.

Martin Dewitt was seriously burned and his wife probably fatally by the explosion of gasoline at Grand Rapids. Mich. They were exterminating bedbugs with gasoline, and the explosion | girl, her body was accidentally discov-

August M. Chenidlin, 75 years old, was crushed to death at St. Paul, Minn., by the wheels of a fire engine. The machine, which was going at top informed the authorities. The spot speed, struck him as he was crossing the street. For twenty years Mr. Chenidlin acted as tutor for the sons of James J. Hill, the railroad magnate.

FIVE IN YACHT DROWNED.

Merchant and Daughters Among the Victims of a Squall. rive persons were drowned in the sound Friday by the capsizing of the yawl rigged yacht Venitzia of Philadelphia at a point five miles east of Sand's point. Two only of those on Provisions-Lard, $8.12468.1716. board were rescued. The drowned are: Arthur C. Colburn, owner of the yacht, Philadelphia merchant; Ida Colburn, daughter of Colburn; Annette cows and heifers, $2@4.75; canners, $1.25@ Colburn, daughter of Colburn; Captain Flint of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the packers, $5.75@5.85; butchers, $5.90@6.15. yacht; sailor, name unknown. The Sieep-Native muttens, $3.15@3.50; lambs, COMPLETE NEWS SUMMARY, yacht; sailor, name unknown. The others on board the ill-fated craft, Mrs. | ers, $2. Walter T. Stankle of Philadelphia, Record of Unppenings of Much or Little daughter of the owner of the yacht; Importance from All Parts of the Cir and the steward, James Stanbridge of Lized World-Incidents. Enterprises, New York, were rescued by the tug Accidents, Verdicts. Crimes and Wars. Gertrude, after clinging for two hours to the bottom of a capsized long boat. First clash in the great conflict oc- The yacht was built in 1888 in Mystic, turred at McKeesport, Pa., and was Conn., and was elaborately finished caused by reported attempts of em- and furnished. She was fifty feet long

Awakening at 3 o'clock in the morn-Catholic church in Milwaukee, the supposed burglar, Morton Starr Cressy, ceremonies being witnessed by 4,000 a Harvard law school student who is spending the summer at Brattieboro. Vt., struggled until free, and, snatch-

LATEST MARKET QUOTATIONS.

4 hard, 631/2003%c. Spring Wheat-No. 1 northern, 641/2003%c; No. 3 spring, 63c; No. No. 8 white, 34@35½c; No. 4, 32@32½c; No. 4 white, 33½@34½c, Hay—Choice timothy, $16; No. 1, $13@15; choice prairie, $15@16. Cattle-Native shipping and export steers, $506; dressed beef and butchers' steers, $475.50; steers under 1,000 lbs, $3.55 (4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.50@4. steers, $3.10@4.40; cows and heifers, $2.30@ $3.75@5.25; culls and bucks, $2@4; stock-Butter-Creamery, extra choice, 19c; dairies, choice, 16@161/2c. Cheese-New Full cream daisies, choice, 100 twins, 9%c. Eggs-Fresh, grown, 90cm $1.10 per bu; early Ohios, St. Turkey gobblers, 6c; hens, 8c; chickens, hens and springs, scalded, 81/200c; hens and springs, dry picked, 81/4c; roosters, 51/406c; ducks, 7/408c; geese, 6/47c; spring chickens, lac.

C. D. Graham made his fifth trip through the Niagara rapids in a barrel Sunday.

Captain Strong's resignation ordered

EARL RUSSELL SENTENCED FOR BIGAMY.

the House of Lords at London, Thurs- black rod, bearing a long white wand, who committed it. It is not the theory cession of extremely hot days planted day for trial on the charge of bigamy, ten feet in length. This was the empleaded guilty and was sentenced to three months' confinement in Holloway prison. The trial was conducted with Letters found in Steyn's captured curious ceremonies that have escaped baggage reveal the desperate plight of the vigilance of reformers. It usher of the black rod formally delivthreatened by a famine, and the force | liamentary chamber, where their lord- who returned it. The lord's chancellor Arnesti Z. Gomez, who claimed to be cellor occupied the woolsack, and ten the deputy garter king-of-arms called a grandson of General Gomez, commit- judges sat facing the peers' usual the roll of peers who had given notice ted suicide in the Midway of the Buf- seats. Behind the lord chancellor of their intention to attend the trial. falo exposition after trying to kill pro- stood Norroy king-of-arms, in brilliant No peers of the royal blood were presheraldic costume. Near the clerks' ent.

blem of the office of the Lord High Steward, conferred by a royal commission under letters patent upon the Lord Chancellor. The proceedings began with prayer. Then the gentleman commenced in the peers ordinary par- ered the wand to the lord chancellor, ships assembled fully robed. The chan- then read the king's commission. Next four shots at his assailant. On lighting his lamp he was horrified to find that he had killed his friend and classmate, Stoney Bristol of Battle Creek, Mich., who had been invited by Cressy to stay over night at the house of his grandmother, Mrs. P. Starr, in Brattleboro. It is believed that Bristol, while in a nightmare, took hold of author. Ouida says: Cressy.

Another Jump in Ohio Oil-

Crude oil went up 3 cents Friday at Lima, O., making 6 cents increase in three days. The advances lead to the belief that the Texas field will not seriously disturb the production of the the netting to escape. northern fields, and operations are bethe oil field about Montpelier.

Hunts a Pension Swindler. Assistant Adjutant General E. B. one J. W. Dunn, alias Dolan, alias ried away from all she loves?" Boyle, who has been posing as a pen-tinued at old rate. Negro Suspects Discharged. Joseph Robertson and "Bull" Holland, the negroes who came near beof 2,000 people, on the supposition that Mayor Jones of Toledo fined $5 and they had assaulted Miss Grace Davis. a 20-year-old white girl, and attacked Alexander Bush, postmaster at Mills, her escort, Vernon Newton, have been tice of the Peace Ross in discharging the men said that little credence could and Newton. On the stand both of

Find Body of Lost Girl.

ments regarding the affair.

Bristol, Conn., July 22.-While hundreds of citizens were hunting for Agnes Hodges, the missing Smith college came when they brought a lamp into ered in Birges pond by William Fitzpatrick, who was bathing. On making a dive into deep water he struck her body, which immediately came to the surface. He hastened to the shore and where the young woman was found was only a few rods from the place where her handkerchief and belt were discovered last Thursday morning.

Olive Schreiner in Cage.

Ouida, the writer, who in private life bears the name of Mme. Louise de la Ramee, protests in the London Daily News against the treatment accorded by the British military authorities in South Africa to Olive Schreiner, the

"Olive Schreiner has been transported to a strange place and imprisoned within a fence of wire netting, which is patrolled by armed sentinels stationed at intervals with orders to fire | her life. It is their theory that the on any one attempting to get through shot was aimed at another member of His relatives believe he wandered

"She lives alone, except for her dog, ing resumed. North Lima oil is now in one small room, for which she pays, 85 cents per barrel; South Lima 80 | cooking for herself. She is compelled cents. Another jump of 3 cents in In- to remain all night without any kind diana oil Friday, sending the price to of light. Her husband is refused by 80 cents, caused great excitement in the British authorities permission to visit her, although her brother is a former premier of Cape Colony.

"What is her offense? Merely to have espoused the cause of the Boers Gray of the G. A. R. is sending out in the war. Is it tolerable that for from Madison, Wis., to post adjutants | this alone she should be subjected to throughout the state a description of the indignity of isolation and be car-

In the House of Lords, Lord Raglan, head. Mr. Fosburg struck the pistol sion examiner, and swindling veterans | in South Africa, said the whites in the who draw pensions, telling them that concentration camps numbered 14,624 their pension has been cut down, but men, 27,711 women and 43,075 children; that for a small sum, ranging from $2 | that the mortality for the month of up to $10, he would get pensions con- June was 63 men, 138 women and 576 also received a heavy blow on the head, ments as to the signatures on the orchildren.

> Raby Smothered in Bed. Sleeping on the dead body of his 9months-old child, whom he had innocently smothered, R. I. Johnson, a night watchman at the Elgin, Ill., watch factory, did not know what he had done until his wife arrived home after an absence of several hours and made the sorrowful discovery. The baby had been placed on a pillow berolled off the pillow and in some way got under the father. The coroner's jury exonerated him from blame.

> > Denver Police Fight Mob.

Denver, Col., July 22.-A mob of 500 men and boys made an attack upon the city jail in an effort to secure Charles Mullein's freedom, but were repulsed by the police, who used their clubs freely upon the heads of the laders. Fred Hoffman and Albert Gunter were arrested as the leaders of the mob. Mullein was arrested twice for preaching anarchist doctrines on the streets, and the second time the crowd that had been listening to him at tempted to storm the jail.

the hands of a confederate of the burglar with whom Mr. Fosburg was clinched in a deadly struggle. Mrs. Youth Charged with Murder of her husband's assistance, and she too His Sister. was beaten, but beyond severe bruises received no lasting injury. The noise FULL OF MYSTERY bers of the family in their respective rooms. Miss May Fosburg got out of Family Declares Deed Was Done by bed and went across the room to the One of Three Unknown Burglars- door opening into the hall. As she State Lays Claim to Facts-Sensation reached it and was about to step into at Pittsfield, Mass.

Robert S. Fosburg was placed on trial at Pittsfield, Mass., Thursday morning, charged with shooting his sister, May Fosburg, on the night of trap was sprung and the men were Aug. 20, 1900. The formal preliminary pronounced dead within fifteen minstep was taken today when the young utes. The crime for which Petway man was called before the Superior paid the penalty was the murder of an Court and pleaded not guilty to the in- old white man named Wrenne on the dictment for manslaughter. In addi- night of May 31, 1900. Battise and tion to the fact that the Fosburgs are | Thompson were hanged for the murder people of wealth and social standing, of Cain Miller, a negro "spotter" for the killing of the handsome girl of 18, the police. Thompson charged Battise in the dead of night and under pecul- with the crime, and to the last affirmed iarly dramatic circumstances, was in his innocence. itself so shocking an affair that the country rang with the story for months young Fosburg's indictment and arrest for the crime. Before that event nobody outside a narrow circle in touch with the Chief of Police and the Prosecuting Attorney here had the remotest suspicion there was anything else in the tragedy than just what the Fosburg family said there was-a plain case of murder committed by burglars caught in the act of pillaging the house. It is the theory of the prosecution that burg'ars had nothing whatever to do with the crime. The State will endeavor to prove that Miss Fosburg was killed as the result of a furious family fight which broke out in the dead of the night, and that the story reputation of the family and to avert about the color of the ace of spades the punishment of one of its members | and was arrested a few days ago on a does not charge was premeditated or the purse of Mrs. Martha Etwell at No ever intended, so far as the victim was | 609 East Fifteenth street, for whom Earl Russell, who was taken before table stood the gentleman usher of the concerned, on the part of the person | she had been working. The recent sur-

ROBERT S. FOSBURG.

MAY FOSBURG.

of the police that young Fosburg, even in the heat of passion, intentionally aimed at his sister the shot which took father, and that Miss Fosburg, presum- account of hard work and heat, ably while acting as a peacemaker in the family brawl, came in range of the bullet. There was a guest staying with them-Miss Bertha Sheldon of Providence. In her honor they were having a merry evening and retired close to midnight.

Story Told by the Family.

family, Mr. Fosburg, Sr., was awak- fatally. ened about 1:30 in the morning by a flash of light and was confronted by a masked man, who held a pistol to his away, and then between Mr. Fosburg and the burglar there was a terrible struggle, during which one of Mr. Fosburg's ribs was broken. Mr. Fosburg ened the state's case by their statepresumably inflicted by some weapon | iginal and the alleged forged notes.

Biddles to Be Hanged. "Jack" and "Ed" Biddle were sentenced to death in the Criminal court at Pittsburg, Pa., for the murder of Grocer Thomas D. Kahney of Albert street, Washington, April 12 last, and Walter Dorman was adjudged guilty of murder of the first degree for his part in the homicide. Kahney was murdered while defending his home against robbers, and a few hours later Detective Patrick Fitzgerald was killed in attempting to arrest the Biddles. Judge Wears a Shirt Walst. Judge Erastus M. Reed, who for twenty-four years has been Judge of the First Bristol District court at Attleboro, Mass., is of the opinion that the dignity of the court does not suffer in the least if a man appears in court in a shirt waist on hot days.

Max Regis Stabbed. Tuesday night as Max Regis, the anti-Semite mayor of Algiers, was going to the Casino at Oran, Algeria, he was stabbed in the neck. His assailant was arrested.

the hall a man standing on the threshold of the spare room opposite fired two pistol shots, one of which struck her in the heart, killing her instantly. As she was sinking to the floor her brother, Robert Stewart Fosburg, the same who is now under indictment for killing her, who was rushing through her room to reach the scene of the struggle, caught her in his arms and laid her down. Then he, too, had a fierce struggle with one of the burg ars, and was struck on the head by a confederate as his father had been. One burglar rushed down the back stairs and escaped by the door; two more of the gang got out of an upper window to the roof of a veranda and so to the THREE NEGROES HANGED.

Executed in Nashville, Tonn., from the Same Scaffold. The first triple execution ever held in Nashville, Tenn., took place when three negro murderers were executed from the same scaffold in the jail yard. The condemned were Babe Battise, Duser Thompson, and Abe Petway, The India Under Iron Heel.

Woman Whinped at Post. Lillie Thomas was whipped at the of the invasion of the house by bur- post established by Justice G. L. Walls glars was hastily concocted to save the in Kansas City Thursday. Lillie is or a crime which even the prosecution | charge of having abstracted $3 from in Lillie an all-consuming thirst for soda water and lemonade. Having no other means of gratifying her thirst. when she saw a purse with $3 in it on the bureau at the Etwell home, she resigned without notice.

Man Poses as a Woman. A Texas detective has arrested in the King's river neighborhood in Madison county, Ark., a supposed young woman who had been teaching a private school there for some time. It turned out that the school teacher was a man in disguise, and that his name was Sears He is alleged to have been wanted in Texas on the charge of committing a murder seven years ago. When arrested the young man had in his possession $3,000 in cash carried in a belt.

Des Moines Man Is Missing. Charles J Luthe, secretary of the Luthe Hardware Company and one of the leading young business men of Des Moines, has been missing since Wednesday night, when he bought a tick for Denver at the Rock Island office giving the name of C. J. Lambert. No trace of him can be found at Denver the family, either Fosburg's wife or his away while temporarily deranged on Packing Plant Burned. The packing plant of Jacob Dold & Sons of Wichita was totally destroyed by fire. There were four large buildings. It is estimated that 7,000,000 pounds of meat, in process of preparation was destroyed. The loss is $650 000, with insurance about $400,000. One According to the story told by the wall fell, injuring four men, but not

Swears Glenn Is a Man Dr. Gale Samuels testified at Parkersburg, W. Va., that Ellis B. Glenn, defendant in the Glenn forgery case is a man rather than a woman. Several experts in handwriting strength bill of rights in the Virginia constitution, as far as the constitutonal-convention committee on that document is concerned. By a vote of 7 to 4 the committee at Richmond decided today to preserve the original language. Beloit Mail Clerk Arrested. Harry E. Mott, mailing clerk of the Word "Christian" to Stay,

The word "Christian" stays in the Beloit, Wis., postoffice, has been rested and held for trial on the charge of embezzling 20,000 2-cent stamps. Salt Trust Cuts Prices.

The Michigan Salt association dropped salt from 70 cents to 45 cents a barrel at Saginaw Wednesday. The cut is on account of the increased production, large surplus and a determination to make it warm for manufacturers outside of the association.

Exposition for Antwerp. The Belgian government and the municipality of Antwerp contemplate a great universal marine exposition or of the struggle awakened other mem- BATTLE IN CITY STREETS

Fosburg, Sr., by this time had come to | Sequel to the Lynching of the Leader.

Great Excitement at Cleveland, Miss., daughter, Mrs. Smith, last week, had ganized and Armed.

the afternoon at Mound City, after a ple. The president and his wife were sharp fight with the officers and was habitually early ricers. being brought here for trial when a posse of citizens met the party and took possession of Phillips. He was the cross arm of a telegraph pole. Just as the players were dispersing three armed negroes rode into town, demonstrations. This was the signal ily armed men, and any overt act man was dead. would have meant terrible warfare upon any negro who could have been found. Fears are yet entertained that the lynching of Phillips will breed bloodshed. He was especially active in organizing "protective societies" among the negroes, and it is thought. they may try to avenge his d ath. The work of organizing the negroes has been going on for some time, and it is the imprint of fingers there. Footknown that the lodges have provided India is threatened with famine to themselves with arms and ammuni- of the house through a cornfield, and the extent unparalleled in the history tion. It has been decided by the whites also leading away from the house. A of that country, according to Romesh | that it is absolutely necessary to break | place from which the tracks led was Dutt, a distinguished Anglo-Indian of up these organizations. The enforce- found where some one had been lying, the imperial revenue department. Mr. | ment of this decision is likely to be watching the house through a hedge. Dutt is 26 years of age, and is the attended with serious results. The The object seems to have been neither author of "Open Letters on Famines" fact has developed that the killing of assault nor robbery. Mr. Lane is 80 and "Land Assessments in India." Mr | young Reed was a studied scheme on years old and his wife was 40. Dutt said at Lendon: "England's op- | the part of the negroes. Phillips was pressive and frequently illegal finan | given the weapon with which he did | cial treatment of India is largely re- the shooting by a negro, Gus Jones. ficer, of Kalamazoo, Mich., has estabsponsible for famines. Unless this sys- Phillips himself confessed to these lished a strict quarantine against the tem is radically changed the Indian facts when he was captured yes orday. Michigan insane asylum, where twenempire will live in a perpetual shadow Papers found on his person disclosed ty-nine cases of smallpox and vario-

> Tolstoi Is Seriously III. stoi's representative in Great Britain. Vaccination of the 1,700 inmates has has received a telegram asserting that begun. The health officer alleges the the famous Russian is dangerously ill asylum management has been careless with fever, accompanied by great in admitting patients without vaccinaweakness, and that his state is very tion. The disease was brought into serious. The dispatch was received the institution by a female nurse who from Tula, European Russia, where recently visited her home. It was first Count Tolstoi is understood to be.

MRS. PAUL KRUGER DEAD.

Wife of the Transyani Statesman Passes

Away at Pretoria. Mrs. Kruger, wife of former President Kruger of the South African republic, died Saturday of pneumonia, after an illness of three days. She was 67 years old. Mrs. Kruger's long separtion from her husband, combined with the death of her favorite Follows a Lynching, Which Leads to completely broken her spirit. Mr. Discovery That Colored Men Are Or- Eloff and many other members of the Kruger family were at her b dside when she passed away. She was some-Jesse Phillips, labor agitator, had borne him sixteen children, eleven preacher and lodge organizer, who of whom are still living, including five murdered young Lucius Reed here July daughters. In the small, unpretentious 16, was lynched in Cleveland, Miss., house in Pretoria used as the presi-Saturday night. He was captured in dency domestic habits were very sim-

Dies in Electric Chair. Frank Wennerholm, the Chautauqua at once hurried here and hanged to county murderer, was put to death by electricity in the prison at Auburn, N. . The current was turned on one minute and five seconds, and the man and, stopping three white citizens on his seat in the chair Wennerholm apthe main street, made threatening peared to be on the point of utter colfor battle, and fire was opened upon were put in position the doomed man the negroes, two of them being killed, tossed his head to one side and uttered one outright and the body of the other a low moan. The current was of 1.800 being discovered at the edge of the volts and seven amperes, which was town this morning. The third man reduced after two seconds to 200 volts escaped. All were armed with Win- for half a minute, and then increased chester rifles and were well mounted. to its original strength for two seconds. During the remainder of the night ex- when it was again reduced to 200 volts citement was at fever heat in the city, for half a minute, and increased to All the streets were pairfilled by helv- 1,900, when it was turned off, and the > Woman Strangely Murdered. Mrs. George W. Lane, wife of a rich retired farmer living two miles north of Canton, Ill., was found dead in a woodshed by her husband on returning from Canton on Tuesday morning. she had been strangled. An examination of the body by the coroner's tury disclosed scratches on her throat, and prints were found leading to the back of famine, with its attendant misery plots to murder a number of planters. loid were discovered. No one is allowed to enter or leave the asylum grounds. Workman Munger, who went M. Tchertkoff, who is Count Tol- to his home in the city is quarantined. diagnosed as chickenpox.

> GEN. BUTTERFIELD, CIVIL WAR HERO, IS DEAD.

been ill for a year or more, died at his New York, the bishop of Bedford and home in Cold Springs, N. Y., Wednes- Canon Farrar performing the cereday night. Gen. Butterfield was born mony, He planned, organized and comin Utica, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1831, was manded the civic parade on the third graduated from Union college and day of the Washington centennial celeserved with distinction in the civil bration in New York on May 1, 1889. war. Resigning from the army, he the largest movement of civilians in a became assistant United States treas- public demonstration known in modern urer in New York, and afterward or- history. He declined the Republican ganized and built a railway in Cen- nomination for Congress in the Tenth tral America. In September, 1886, at congressional district of New York city St. Margaret's Westminster, England, in 1891.

Gen, Daniel Butterfield, who had he married Mrs. Julia L. James of

Two Fires in Michigan. The big maple flooring factory of Thomas Foreman & Co. at Petoskey, Mich., has been destroyed by fire, together with six million feet of lumber and a dwelling house. The loss is estimated at $400,000. Insurance, $56,000. The fire caught from the engine room. water from the pools of Solomon The Michigan barrel works, located in through iron pipes into the city along the north end of Grand Rapids, Mich., the line of Solomon's stone aqueduct.

will reach $250,000.

Woman Burned to Death. Miss Elsie Hirsch, the 19-year-old the banks of the Scheldt at Antwerp one of the most brilliant girls

Death and famine threaten the Holy City," says the Jerusalem correspondent of the Standard in a communication, "on account of the scanty water supply, due to the insufficient rains of last winter. The Sultan has granted permission to the municipality to bring burned with an adjacent lumber pile The new works were begun today on and a large amount of stock. The loss | telegraphic orders from the Sultan. They will be finished in two months."

Famine Threatens Jerusalem.

Lorillard's Will to Stand-Chancellor Magee promised counsel daughter of Simon Hirsch of the Star | for the executors of Pierre Lorillard at Distilling company, Cincinnati, lighted | Trenton, N. J., that he would be at the a gas stove in the bathroom. Her state house next Thursday, when Lornightdress caught fire, and she was illard's will is to be offered for proburned so badly that she died later. bate. In a subsequent conversation Her screams attracted members of the with counsel here in the Rogers will family, who rushed to the bathroom, case, the chancellor said he had been but found it locked. They broke in informed that there would be no conthe door and found the young woman test in the Lorillard case. This anwrithing in agony. Miss Hirsch was nouncement was not official in charprominent in society circles, and a pu- acter, although the information was pil at Miss Butler's school, and was assumed to have come to the chancellor from counsel for the executors.